Dear Ray Stancerski:

Thank you for attending Air Vent's seminar Attic Ventilation: Ask the Expert™ -- our educational seminar we've been offering to the residential roofing industry since 1998. We hope you found the information useful and will be able to apply it in your day-to-day applications. We also hope you'll be referring to the attic ventilation technical resources we handed out.

Enclosed is an official certificate of completion acknowledging that you attended the seminar and that you are knowledgeable concerning issues of attic ventilation principles and installation. This 2-hour seminar is recognized by the AIA, AIBD, ASHI, ACHI, NAHI, All, RCI and NARI for continuing education credits. Air Vent will forward all AIA member names and membership numbers to AIA headquarters for education credits. For all other organizations please forward a copy of your certificate of attendance to the national office.

Be sure to visit our website www.airvent.com for our online educational courses and other FREE technical resources including: the attic ventilation calculator you can download to your computer or as a Smartphone feature; video clips of our products undergoing various performance tests; compelling "before" and "after" thermo-graphic case study photos highlighted in the seminar you are welcome to use in your own presentation or on your website; The Edge Vent 30-Day Ice Dam Test results; and Hip Ridge Vent Passes Miami-Dade County's Wind Driven Rain Test.

Please follow us on Facebook. If you have a question about our products or attic ventilation, call us at 1-800-AIR VENT or email us: ventilation@gibraltar1.com.

Sincerely,
